

MICHIGAN ACTIVE ASSAILANT CONFERENCE:

Lessons Learned By Lead Law Enforcement and Fire Service Agencies

April 19-20, 2016
William Costick Activities Center
28600 Eleven Mile Road
Farmington Hills, Michigan 48336

This conference is intended for law enforcement, fire service and private ambulance personnel and will provide first-hand accounts of some of the largest active assailant incidents in recent history. Presentations will also include information on what administrative and operational changes have been made in the aftermath of these tragedies:

- Bank of America North Hollywood Shootout (Los Angeles, California)
- Boston Marathon Bombing and Manhunt
- Century 16 Theatre (Aurora, Colorado)
- Columbine High School (Littleton, Colorado)
- Northern Illinois University
- Safeway (Tucson, Arizona)
- San Bernardino (California)
- Virginia Tech

This conference will be submitted to the Michigan Commission on Law Enforcement Standards for use of approved funds and Michigan Department of Health and Human Services for 16 hours of approved continuing education.

Please know attendance will be limited to 400 and all participants will need to pre-register. Given the sensitive nature of the information being shared, attendance will be restricted to first responders and emergency management personnel. On-site registration will not be permitted.

For additional information, please contact Farmington Hills Fire Department EMS Coordinator Jim Etzin at jetzin@fhgov.com or (248) 871-2807.
